Important notice to borrower(s):

The details and conditions within the Offer of Mortgage are those which the Society will use to set up and administer your account. You should check the details to ensure that you understand and agree with them. In particular, you should check:

- The monthly repayment method to verify that your requirement for interest only or capital and interest has been met, or if interest and capital payments are suspended
- The need for you to arrange a repayment vehicle to repay the capital if you have an interest only mortgage
- The interest rate, in order to understand if it is variable, fixed or variable within limits and how and when the rate can change in the future
- The conditions for early repayment and any charge that may be applied and the period within which the charge applies
- The number of years over which the repayment of the mortgage has been arranged
- The arrangements you are making to insure the property

SECTION 2 – Borrower acceptance

The undersigned have received, read and understood the Offer of Mortgage, Conditions, Special Conditions and understand, accept and agree to abide by them.
