Mortgage debt means all money from time to time due, owing or incurred to the lender by the borrower under the terms of the mortgage documents, including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing):

- (a) the mortgage loan;
 - (b) the expenses;
 - (c) the fees;
 - (d) any tax payable on any fees and expenses
 - (e) all interest payable in accordance with the offer and/or the conditions;
- and
- (f) any other amount due in accordance with the offer and/or the conditions (including, by way of example, the amounts due in respect of insurance premiums to be paid pursuant to condition 6.4.5(e) of the conditions).

1. This standard security incorporates the conditions and the borrower acknowledges receipt and confirms acceptance of the conditions and the offer. All terms and phrases shown in bold type have the meaning given to them in the conditions unless otherwise defined in this standard security.
2. The borrower hereby undertakes to pay to the lender the mortgage debt and to pay, perform and discharge any other present or future money, obligations and liabilities owed by the borrower to the lender whether actual or contingent and whether jointly or severally as principal or guarantor, and in any other capacity (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) in relation to the mortgage or any agreement made with the lender hereafter except for any money payable under any agreement regulated by the Consumer Credit Act 1974 which does not provide that the agreement is secured by this standard security; For which the borrower, with the consent of the consenter (if any) for the purposes of the Matrimonial Homes (Family Protection) (Scotland) Act 1981 or the Civil Partnership Act 2004 (as applicable), grants a standard security in favour of the lender over ALL and WHOLE.

The standard conditions specified in Schedule 3 to the Conveyancing and Feudal Reform (Scotland) Act 1970, and any lawful variation thereof operative for the time being, shall apply; and the borrower agrees that the standard conditions shall be varied to incorporate the conditions.

3. As continuing security for the payment of the secured amount the borrower assigns to the lender the whole right, title and interest, present and future, of the borrower in and to all receipts and any related rights.
4. The borrower undertakes to observe the conditions and the offer.
5. The borrower agrees that a certificate signed by a duly authorised official of the lender shall suffice to ascertain the amount or any part of the amount due to the lender under this standard security at any time.
6. The borrower grants warrandice and consents to the registration of this standard security and any certificate referred to above for execution.

7. This standard security is governed by Scots law
