We, the conveyancers named above confirm

- That the information provided above is accurate and correct
- We have complied with, or will by the Anticipated Settlement Date, comply with the relevant provisions of the UK Finance Lenders' Handbook Scotland current at the date of this certificate and any other instructions you may have issued to us.

- We have examined the title to the Security Address offered to you as security for a loan and certify, save in respect of any matter previously reported to and agreed by you in writing, the Borrower has acquired or will acquire upon the Anticipated Settlement Date a valid and marketable title to the Security Address which may be accepted by you for mortgage purposes. All of the conditions in the Mortgage Offer of a legal nature which need to be satisfied by settlement have been or will be complied with by the Anticipated Settlement Date.
- At settlement you will have a first ranking standard security by the Borrower (“Standard Security”) over the Security Address and no subsequent charges are to our knowledge to be created over the Security Address unless agreed in writing by you.
- We acknowledge that The Mortgage Lender Limited may at some time transfer or assign its interest in the Standard Security to a third party and confirm that the successors to The Mortgage Lender Limited in title to the Standard Security (whether formally assigned or by any other beneficial entitlement) or persons deriving title under or through the Standard Security may also rely upon the accuracy of this certificate of title.
